Childbirth and Early Parenting Education Courses: Insurance Claims and Billing Information

The courses offered through the Early Parenting and Childbirth Education program at the Center for Women's Health are often covered by medical insurance. Below are some facts that may help address questions regarding Childbirth Education course expenses:

- Reimbursement depends entirely on the individual insurance plan specifications. This means we cannot offer any guarantee of coverage.

Medicaid/Oregon Health Plan

Participants using Medicaid and/or Oregon Health Plan should contact Childbirth Education directly at birthing@ohsu.edu to arrange for registration.

Private Insurance

- Childbirth Education/OHSU does not bill insurance or reimburse participants directly.
- If you would like to utilize your health insurance benefits, we recommend that you prepay the course fees then submit a claim for reimbursement to your insurance company. The rate or amount of reimbursement is based solely on the specifications of your insurance coverage.

Useful private insurance claim information:

- Insurance claims often require proof of payment. Proof of payment is the receipt that was sent via email to the email address provided during online registration.
- The Tax ID number of Early Parenting and Childbirth Education is 93-1176109
- The CPT Code for childbirth education classes is S9442
- If the insurance claim form requires an ICD-10 code please refer to the provider/patient billing offices to obtain the appropriate ICD-10 code.*

*Common ICD-10 codes recommended for pregnancy are as follows:

--ICD-10-CM Z34.00 Encounter for supervision of normal first pregnancy, unspecified trimester

--Z34.01 for first trimester, Z34.02 for second trimester, and Z34.03 for third trimester.
