

THE ALL-CITY PALLIATIVE CARE LECTURE SERIES PRESENTS

PALLIATIVE CARE IN A GLOBAL PANDEMIC

REFLECTIONS, LESSONS, NEXT STEPS

BY BRIANA KETTERER, MD, MS

AND PANEL OF INTERDISCIPLINARY MEMBERS
FROM THE OHSU INPATIENT PALLIATIVE CARE SERVICE

FRIDAY, MARCH 5, 2021

12:00-1:00PM PT

VIA WEBEX: JOIN HERE

ABOUT OUR SPEAKER

Briana Ketterer, MD, MS is an Assistant Professor of Medicine at Oregon Health & Science University where she is a clinician educator on the OHSU Inpatient Palliative Care Service. Her goal is to work collaboratively to improve the lives of patients and families with serious illness. She also has a particular interest in medical education and training the next generation of clinicians. She enjoys teaching communication and primary palliative care skills.

Dr. Ketterer received her medical degree from the University Of Arizona College Of Medicine in Tucson, Arizona and was inducted into the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor society. She completed residency training in Internal Medicine at Oregon Health & Science University where she also served as a Chief Medical Resident. Dr. Ketterer then went to the University Of Pittsburgh Medical Center for fellowship training in Hospice and Palliative Medicine where she also completed a Master's of Science in Medical Education at the University of Pittsburgh. She then returned to Oregon and joined Oregon Health & Science University's inpatient Palliative Care team in August 2020. She also has an appointment with the OHSU School of Medicine where she is a member of the Entrustment Group assessing the 13 core entrustable professional activities for entering residency training. Dr. Ketterer serves nationally on the AAHPM Assessment Workgroup and the AAHPM Fellowship Training Committee.

Dr. Ketterer will be joined by a panel of interdisciplinary colleagues from the OHSU Inpatient Palliative Care Service.

We look forward to seeing you there!

