This conference is sponsored and brought to you by the OHSU Center for Ethics in Health Care & Samaritan Health Services. We are most grateful to our co-chairs of this conference - Wes Sedlacek, MDiv, BCC, and Susan W. Tolle, MD.

For additional conference information, please visit the Center for Ethics website at <https://www.ohsu.edu/center-for-ethics/kinsman-bioethics-conference>

The Kinsman Bioethics Conference is an interprofessional conference for all healthcare providers and allied health professionals; physicians, nurses, social workers, chaplains, pharmacists, mental health services, and administrators are welcome.

Conference Objectives

- Describe the role of systemic inequity, and how it affects people from a range of communities who have experienced bias and adverse health outcomes.
- Prepare effective communication strategies to create inclusivity and equity in the patient-provider relationship.
- Explain the psycho-social impacts of health care disparities on patients and health providers.

Our Keynote Speaker

Dr. Monica Peek is an Associate Professor at the University of Chicago, where she provides clinical care, teaches and does health services research, with a focus on health disparities. Dr. Peek is the Associate Director of the Chicago Center for Diabetes Translation Research, the Executive Medical Director of Community Health Innovation and the Director of Research (and Associate Director) at the MacLean Center for Clinical Medical Ethics. Her research pursues health equity and social justice, with a focus on promoting equitable doctor/patient relationships among racial minorities, integrating the medical and social needs of patients, and addressing healthcare discrimination and structural racism that impact health outcomes (e.g., diabetes, COVID-19).

Dr. Peek has authored over 100 peer-reviewed research papers and publications and has served as the principal investigator of multiple grants from institutions such as NIH/NIDDK, the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, and the Merck Foundation.

Dr. Peek is a Senior Associate Editor for the journal Health Services Research and a recent member of the National Advisory Council (NAC) for the Agency for Healthcare Research & Quality (AHRQ) and the National Council for the Society of General Internal Medicine (SGIM).

Dr. Peek was named one of the “Top 40 under 40” in Chicago by Crain's Business Magazine and has been ranked among Chicago's Top Female Physicians. She has been featured in national media outlets such as NPR, CNN, Democracy Now, CBS, ABC, TIME Magazine, the Melissa Harris Perry show, The Chicago Tribune and The Huffington Post.
