

Dan Sudakin, M.D., M.P.H.

Dan Sudakin, MD, MPH, is board certified in addiction medicine, medical toxicology, and preventive medicine. He completed his medical toxicology fellowship at OHSU/VAMC in 2000. He is a Fellow of the American Academy of Clinical Toxicology, the American College of Medical Toxicology, the American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine, and the American Society of Addiction Medicine. He has served on the volunteer clinical faculty in the department of emergency medicine at OHSU, providing lectures on occupational and environmental toxicology as well as current topics in addiction medicine. He has a private outpatient practice specializing in addiction medicine and medical toxicology in Portland, OR.