

MY CHILD'S CARE COORDINATORS

Care Coordinators work with you to organize your child's health care and services. Sometimes they are called Service Coordinators or Case Managers. They can help if you have questions, or if you have a problem getting your child the care they need. Use this form to keep track of your child's care coordinators.

You may have a Care Coordinator at one or more of these places:

- Pediatric or Family Practice office
- Medical specialty office
- Insurance company
- Home visiting program
- School
- Indian Health Services/Tribe
- Developmental Disabilities agency
- Children's Intensive In-Home Services
- Children's Behavioral Health/ Wraparound
