ABOUT OUR SPEAKER

Heidi has been at OHSU for 10 years, first as a staff nurse on the orthopedic unit, and now as full-time faculty in the OHSU School of Nursing. Heidi has a bachelor's and master's degree in philosophy as well as a bachelor's and master's degree in nursing. She also completed a graduate certificate in bioethics and health policy through Loyola University Chicago, is an Associate Director of the OHSU Center for Ethics in Health Care, and recently earned her Healthcare Ethics Consultant-Certification (HEC-C). Heidi will be done with school once and for all when she finishes a PhD in Nursing Ethics in the spring of 2022. In her role with the School of Nursing, Heidi works with students in OHSU's BSN programs, teaching primarily in courses related to chronic illness and end of life. She also serves on the OHSU Ethics Consult Service and Institutional Ethics Committee.

OBHC IS HOSTED BY THE OHSU CENTER FOR ETHICS IN HEALTH CARE.
