

THE OREGON BIOETHICS AND HUMANITIES COLLOQUIUM PRESENTS

THE CLINICAL UTILITY PROBLEM FOR GERMLINE GENETIC INTERVENTIONS

BY BRYAN CCIK, PHD

PORTLAND STATE UNIVERSITY

MONDAY, DECEMBER 6 FROM 12-1PM PT

ADD TO CALENDAR

OUTLOOK - GOOGLE - APPLE

ABOUT OUR SPEAKER

Bryan Cwik is assistant professor of Philosophy and University Studies at Portland State University in Portland, Oregon. He works on biomedical ethics and political philosophy. He has published papers on gene editing, climate change, and intellectual property, and is currently at work on a book on the ethics of biotechnology.

OBHC IS HOSTED BY THE OHSU CENTER FOR ETHICS IN HEALTH CARE.

SCAN QR CODE OR CLICK HERE TO VISIT THE OBHC WEBPAGE.

