“Something in the Air”

“For many patients ‘home’ isn’t the physical place. It’s a metaphor for a place that’s not medicalized, that’s comfortable and full of love.”

In Difficult Cases, ‘Families Cannot Manage Death at Home’

“The end of life is a natural part of living. It is not a medical experience, but a human experience. It requires the expertise of medicine, but that needs to be in the background. What needs to be paramount is love, care and the dignity we all want at the end of life.”

The Care Model at Reopened Hopewell House

THE PLAN OF CARE?

- Each admitting hospice will CONTINUE to be responsible for their own patients.
- This includes providing drugs, (some)DME, chaplain, MSW, RN, MD.
- Hopewell House staff will collaborate with those hospices.

THE PLAN OF CARE?

- Benefits of scale: more eyes, more heads, more hands, more hearts.
- Continuity of Hospice

THE PLAN OF CARE?

- With actively dying, or unstable patients, there will be a quicker response to changes in condition.
