

Portland Rhinoplasty Course, July 29 – 31, 2022

---

Course Program

Time	Topic	Speaker
Friday, July 29, 2022 – morning session
0750-0800	Introduction and welcome	Wang/Loyo/Flint
0800-0815	Correlating nasal anatomy with surface contour	Dougherty
0815-0830	Anesthesia and analgesia in rhinoplasty	Razavi
0830-0845	Photo-documentation for rhinoplasty	Loyo
0845-0915	The rhinoplasty consultation	Wang
0915-0930	Surgical modification of the nasal dorsum	Kontis
0930-0945	Use of piezo instruments in rhinoplasty	Friedman
0945-1015	BREAK
1015-1030	The nasal tip: projection and rotation	Most
1030-1045	The nasal tip: volume and geometry	Most
1045-1100	Cartilage grafting in the nasal tip	Wong
1100-1115	Lateral crural strut graft – technical nuances	Hamilton
1115-1130	Push down/let down, the “original” preservation explained	Lopez
1130-1145	Preservation rhinoplasty – new and improved	Friedman
1145- 1200	Optimizing post-operative care	Morris
1200- 1300	LUNCH - PANEL discussions – Difficult case presentations	Krane – mod.

Friday, July 29, 2022 – afternoon session

1300-1315	CPT coding for nasal procedures – cutting through the numbers	Hainz
1315-1330	Avoiding breathing complications after rhinoplasty	Hamilton
1330-1345	Addressing complex septal deformities	Dougherty
1345-1400	Nasal valve collapse: what is it and how do we deal with it?	Clark
1400-1415	Straightening the twisted nose	Wang
1415-1430	Seven-step approach to the perfect nasal tip	Mehta
1430-1500	BREAK
1500-1530	Craft of carving costal cartilage	Hamilton
1530-1600	Endonasal rhinoplasty: not dead yet	Friedman
1600-1615	The long and short of adjusting nasal length	Most
1615-1700	PANEL discussion – Primary rhinoplasty issues	Loyo – mod.
1700	ADJOURN

Saturday, July 30, 2022 – morning session

0730-0800	Transport from hotel to OHSU dissection lab
0800-1130	Dissection lab @ OHSU
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Nasal incisions</li><li>- Tip maneuvers</li><li>- Dorsal modifications</li><li>- Osteotomies</li><li>- Power instrumentation demo</li><li>- Facial and nasal implant demo</li><li>- NOTE: participants will need to bring headlight, scrubs and rhinoplasty instruments for dissection. Gloves, gowns and hats will be provided.</li></ul>
1130-1200	Transport from OHSU dissection lab to SoWa lecture hall
1200-1300	LUNCH Roundtable – Difficult case presentations	Krane – mod.

Saturday, July 30, 2022 – afternoon session

1300-1315	Cartilage dorsal preservation – simplified	Hamilton
1315-1330	Injection rhinoplasty, needle versus knife	Kontis
1330-1345	Pediatric rhinoplasty	Morris
1345-1400	Management of thick nasal skin in rhinoplasty	Mehta
1400-1415	Male rhinoplasty- preserving masculinity	Loyo
1415-1430	Rhinoplasty complications and how to avoid them	Wong
1430-1500	BREAK
1500-1515	What to do about septal perforations	Genther
1515-1530	Aligning the middle vault, spreader grafts and alternatives	Clark
1530-1545	Preservation rhinoplasty: why and how	Most
1545-1615	Repair of the severely contracted nose	Hamilton
1615-1700	PANEL discussions – Revision rhinoplasty issues	Wang – mod.
1700	ADJOURN

Sunday, July 31, 2022 – morning session

0750-0800	Opening remarks	Wang/Loyo
0800-0815	Cleft rhinoplasty	Morris
0815-0830	Rhinoplasty in the age of internet and social media	Krane
0830-0845	Nuance in endonasal approach to the nose	Lopez
0845-0900	Balancing the chin in rhinoplasty	Dougherty
0900-0915	Reconstruction of challenging nasal defects	Genther
0915-0930	Importance of long-term outcomes in rhinoplasty	Wong
0930-0945	How to become an “expert” in rhinoplasty	Hamilton
0945-1015	BREAK
1015-1030	Geriatric rhinoplasty	Clark
1030-1045	How I built my rhinoplasty practice	Mehta
1045-1100	Avoiding the stigmata of the “done” nose	Friedman
1100-1115	How I manage the unhappy patient	Kontis
1115-1200	PANEL discussions – Challenges/new horizons in rhinoplasty	Wang – mod.
1200	ADJOURN

---

---