

Michaelson Gerontological Nursing Scholarship Applications are due April 3, 2023 by 5:00 p.m.

The Michaelson Gerontological Nursing Scholarship helps support future advanced practice nurse educators gain the enhanced knowledge needed to address the complex health care needs of older adults.

Program Specifics

This scholarship provides support for students in the second year of the MNE program at the OHSU SoN who are committed to improving the health and health care of older adults. Up to $4000 will be awarded to accepted students for the 2023-24 academic year during Fall, Winter, and Spring terms.

Qualifications

Award funds may only be used for qualified tuition and fees for the year that award is granted. Scholar must be a permanent resident of the United States or its territories at the time they will receive the scholarship. Scholarship funds will be distributed in accordance with the University policies regarding scholarship funding.

Application

Applications are made through the School of Nursing website and are due April 3, 2023 by 5:00 p.m. As part of the application, students must submit two letters: 1) a Letter of Intent confirming the student's commitment to the health and health care needs of older adults and 2) a Letter of Support from a program director, advisor, or faculty member confirming the student's interest in the care of older adults, and his/her appraisal of the applicant's strengths and limitations.

If you have questions, please contact Marilyn Sanguinetti, Hartford Center of Gerontological Excellence Project Administrator at sanguine@ohsu.edu.

About the Michaelson Scholarship

The Phyllis J. Michaelson Scholarship Fund in Gerontological Nursing, established in 1996 by Jerry Michaelson, was created to support students, with a gerontological nursing specialty, enrolled in graduate nursing programs of the OHSU School of Nursing. The Hartford Center of Gerontological Excellence is honored to provide stewardship for the Michaelson Scholarship.