

2024 Campagna Scholarship: Application Packet

A Leading Scholarship Available for United States Medical Students Intending a Career in Neurological Surgery

Established and funded by Dr. Mario and Mrs. Edith Campagna in 2006, the Campagna Scholarship supports a 10-week period of research under the supervision of a neurosurgical mentor at Oregon Health & Science University (OHSU) and residence expenses in Portland, Oregon. Students in the first or second year of study at an accredited U.S. medical school are eligible to apply. One scholar will be selected annually.

Campagna scholars will receive $5,000 for support of travel to and living expenses in Portland. Scholars are eligible for up to $2,500 additional award to support travel to a national neurosurgical meeting to present the results of their research project, under the supervision of their mentor. The OHSU neurosurgical faculty mentor also receives up to $2,500 to cover research expenses.

Instructions to Applicant:

- PLEASE NOTE: The first 30 COMPLETE applications to be received will be considered for this opportunity. We will post a notice on the website when that cap has been reached.
- If the cap is not reached, the deadline for all applications is Friday, January 19, 2024.
- All application materials may be submitted electronically. See page 5 for more information.
- Notification of award will be made by February 23, 2024.
- After notification of the award, the applicant must indicate acceptance in writing within 14 days of the notification date. If acceptance is not received by Campagna Scholarship Committee by the deadline, funds will be awarded to the first runner-up.
- One award will be made per year.
- The OHSU Neurological Surgery Campagna Scholarship is to be cited as a source of support for any publicity that may result from this award, including in the acknowledgements section of scientific publications.
