

OHSU Innovates Seminars go beyond traditional innovation discussions, exploring how diversity in thought, background, and experience leads to more robust and creative solutions.

Securing Non-Dilutive Funding for Innovative Business

Dr. Nyah Zarate, PhD, serves as the principal investigator and founder of Continuous Solutions Inc, established in 2014 in Portland, OR. In this first talk of our quarterly seminar series, Dr. Zarate will discuss the means in which funding for businesses can be secured via grants, federal contracts, and other creative methods as a researcher and engineer.
