

School of Medicine Faculty Development Grants

Thanks to the Dean Sharon Anderson Faculty Development Fund, the SoM Office of Faculty Development invites applications for grants to support professional growth, educational and research innovations, scholarly activity, leadership development and the pursuit of well-being, diversity, equity and inclusion.

These grants are designed to enhance the skills, capabilities, and career trajectories of faculty by funding opportunities that directly contribute to excellence at OHSU.

Apply by April 30 for 2025-26 Awards
