

VIRTUAL OPEN HOUSE & Q&A SESSION

OHSU Clinical Psychology PhD Program

CPP is excited to invite prospective and interested applicants to a virtual open house. Meet virtually with a faculty member and current students and learn about the graduate program, OHSU, and ask questions. A brief overview of the structure of the program will be held before a general Q&A session with current students.

Please note that to maintain applicant privacy we are unable to answer questions about individual applications.

We look forward to connecting!

Please feel free to forward to any potential interested applicants.
