OHSU TRANSPLANT PROGRAM – Quick Facts

Kidney Transplant Facts
- OHSU’s kidney transplant program started in 1959 and received Medicare certification in 1973.
- The transplant team has transplanted 4,243 kidneys as of June 30, 2011.
  - An additional 205 kidneys have been transplanted at the VA.
  - Total OHSU & VA kidney transplants to date: 4,448.
- OHSU’s three-year graft survival rate for kidney transplants is 89 percent; the patient survival rate is 94 percent. Both of these are higher than expected and U.S. overall values.

Liver Transplant Facts
- OHSU’s liver transplant program started in 1988 and received Medicare certification in 1993.
- The transplant team has transplanted 716 livers as of June 30, 2011.
- The transplant program is a consortium between OHSU and the Portland Veterans Affairs Medical Center.
  - An additional 366 have been done at the VA.
  - Total OHSU & VA liver transplants to date: 1,082.
- OHSU’s one-year patient survival rate for liver transplants is 94 percent, which is higher than expected and U.S. overall values.

Heart Transplant Facts
- OHSU’s heart transplant program started in 1985 and received Medicare certification in 1988.
- The transplant team has transplanted 571 hearts as of June 30, 2011.
- OHSU’s one-year patient survival rate for heart transplants is almost 93 percent, which is higher than expected and U.S. overall values.

Pancreas Transplant Facts
- OHSU’s pancreas transplant program started in 1987 and received Medicare certification in 1977.
- The transplant team has performed 160 pancreas transplants as of June 30, 2011.
- The one-year graft survival rate for pancreas transplants is nearly 95 percent, which is higher than expected and U.S. overall values.

Grand Totals
- Total OHSU transplanted organs: 5,718 (includes an additional 20 lungs and 4 heart-lungs)
- Combined OHSU and VA transplanted organs: 6,289.