Sponsored By:
Southern Oregon University
OHSU Center for Ethics in HealthCare
Keynote Speaker:
Mark Tonelli, MD, MA – University of Washington

Conference Co-Chairs:
Prakash Chenjeri, PhD – Southern Oregon University
Lynn A. Jansen, PhD, RN – OHSU Center for Ethics in Health Care

Target Audience:
Our audience includes dental, social work, medical, nursing, chaplaincy and public health professionals, as well as anyone who wishes to broaden their knowledge of current ethical issues and controversies associated with the promotion of health and well-being.

Learning Objectives:
1. Understand the key ethical concepts and challenges associated with shared medical decision making.
2. Discuss the influence of social, institutional, and technological factors in health-related decision making.
3. Develop approaches to determine and support appropriate patient autonomy in medical decision making.
4. Learn to integrate cultural, psychosocial and spiritual perspectives to support patients and surrogate decisions makers in shared medical decision-making.
