

The 58th Dr. Daniel Labby Senior Clinicians' Seminar Series

PRESENTS

The Nudge: Big Friend or Big Brother?

Monday, September 24, 2018
10:00 am - 11:30 am

OHSU Marquam Hill
Casey Eye Institute
MacDonald Auditorium
3375 SW Terwilliger Blvd.
Portland, OR 97239

Dr. Clarke serves as the Seminar moderator, calling on the expertise of invited colleagues and audience members to explore current ethical dilemmas. Dr. Clarke is President of the Psychophysiologic Disorders Association. He is also Assistant Director at the Oregon Health & Science University (OHSU) Center for Ethics in Health Care and Clinical Assistant Professor of Gastroenterology Emeritus at OHSU. Additionally, Dr. Clarke is Associate Faculty at Arizona State University, Clinical Advisor to the Stress Illness Recovery Practitioners Association (U.K.) and a Clinical Lecturer with Pacific University in Oregon.

Seminar Details

This seminar is open to all members of the health community. Dr. Clarke will open the session by exploring the concepts of nudging, genuine informed consent, and ways physicians and professionals communicate with patients. Later in the seminar, Dr. Clarke and attendees will explore cases that include types of nudging, and discuss the ethical obligation of professionals.
