This document outlines the OHSU requirements for participation in the Convocation and Hooding Ceremonies, assists you in ordering and collecting regalia and announcements, and will serve as a guide for you and your relatives on the day of the events. Please read it carefully and keep it handy until the ceremony.

OHSU Convocation Day

Sunday, June 4\textsuperscript{th} at 1 pm
Oregon Convention Center
777 NE Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd., Portland, OR 97232

The Oregon Health & Science University Convocation is a celebratory occasion honoring all students as they culminate their academic experience at OHSU. Convocation will include faculty and administrators from all schools and will bring together members of the OHSU community for the institutional conferring of degrees.

Oregon Convention Center – Exhibit Hall C/D
12:00 PM Students will robe and line up in Exhibit Hall A1
12:00 PM Faculty will robe and line up in Rooms A 105-106

Immediately following Convocation, the schools will be holding their Hooding/Pinning Ceremonies celebrating the distinctiveness of their academic disciplines. The Graduate Studies Hooding/Commencement ceremony will take place in Exhibit Hall E.

Convocation Check List

- Verify that you are eligible to participate in the ceremony.
- Watch your email (make sure we have a current one if you've already completed degree requirements) and the Student Portal for further information.
- Pick up regalia.
- Show up at the ceremony with your regalia.

We look forward to your participation which is an important celebration and time for reflection both in your own life and in the life of the University.
2017 Convocation Participation Policy for Graduate Students

PhD
Master’s Degrees
Graduate Certificates
Bachelor of Science
Associate of Applied Science

You may participate in Convocation if you have met the following criteria:

1. Submit the application for degree by April 15, 2017. Log in to your student account through the Student Information System (SIS), click on Student Services tab, click on Student Records and then click “Apply to Graduate.” (If you already submitted a paper application to graduate in Winter or Spring, you do not need to re-apply.)

2. You completed requirements for your degree in Summer Term 2016, Fall Term 2016, or Winter Term 2017.

    OR

You are enrolled in a cohort-based degree program that will conclude by December 31, 2017. Examples include Clinical Nutrition, Clinical Laboratory Science, Radiation Therapy, Physician Assistant, and Paramedic Education programs.

    OR

You are reasonably certain you will complete your program before the end of Summer Term 2017. The Office of Graduate Studies may request verification from your program.

Diplomas
Diplomas are available to students once the degree verification has been completed and will be mailed to the student’s address on file. Students will receive diploma covers during the hooding ceremony. Graduates with degree requirements still to be satisfied should contact the registrar following completion of these requirements. The OHSU Campus Store (503-494-7708) stocks customized OHSU frames for OHSU diplomas. Official transcripts will not be released until degree requirements are met and all academic and financial obligations to OHSU are satisfied.
Regalia Ordering and Distribution

Return of Gown
Representatives from Royal-T Papers will be collecting rental gowns following the event. Please deposit gowns in the collection boxes provided outside the hall.

Regalia and Etiquette
The academic cap is worn level at all times. The tassel should hang on the right of the cap at entrance into the auditorium until the president has conferred the degrees. At that point, the tassel may be switched to hang from the left side.

It is expected that graduates’ behavior throughout the ceremonies will exemplify the professional standards of their calling. Alcoholic beverages, balloons, pressurized cans and explosive devices are strictly forbidden. Schools will be charged for any additional cleaning costs incurred during the ceremony. The Oregon Convention Center is a non-smoking facility.
FAQ

Where can I leave my phone, pager, purse, coat, backpack, umbrella, camera case, or other valuables?
These MUST be left with family and/or friends before you enter the building and robing/staging area, as there will be no secure area in which to keep them during the ceremony. Anything left in the staging area will be removed prior to the end of the ceremony and OHSU cannot be responsible for the items. Cell phones and similar devices should be turned off or set to silent/vibrate during the ceremony.

Can family/friends come to the robing/staging area and take pictures?
No. The robing/staging area is for students and participating faculty only.

Can I have my baby/small child with me during the ceremony?
No, we are unable to allow babies and small children in the processional. Please make arrangements with family or friends to tend to your baby/child.

What do I do with my regalia after the ceremony?
Feel free to have photos taken and then deposit your Hood and Gown into the receptacles provided around the venue. The cap and tassel are yours to keep. The gowns are bar-coded and they will bill you if they are not returned.

Is there a reception?
There will be a light hosted reception following the ceremony for graduates and their families.

What about tickets for my family?
Seating is unlimited and no tickets are necessary.

When should my family and friends arrive?
The doors will open at 12:30 PM for seating. Early admittance is not available.

What about children?
Young or small children may have difficulties with the length of the ceremony. Please do not allow children to play in the aisles. If the child(ren) becomes fussy, please adjourn to the outer lobby so as not to disturb the ceremony.
