

OHSU PhD

Graduate Research Scholars 2012-2013

I am pleased to announce an exciting PhD graduate research award opportunity! Thanks to fundraising efforts by the OHSU Foundation and support of Dr Robertson and Executive Leadership Team, the School of Medicine Graduate Studies office will be awarding 3 scholarships to PhD Students to cover stipends for one year each.

Allison Fryer, Associate Dean Graduate Studies

Requirements: Scholars must have passed their qualifying exam. Scholars will be identified primarily on the basis of their research scholarship, publications and abstracts, but student engagement in outreach and other volunteer opportunities will also be considered. Awardees are expected to participate in some OHSU Foundation fundraising activities for Graduate Studies during the course of the year. Although a stipend is covered, fees and tuition are still the responsibility of the graduate student mentor.

Applications are due in the Graduate Studies Office
13 April 2012

Applications must include:

1. Cover letter from the applicant describing their research activities and outreach/volunteer activities (limit 2 pages).
2. Letter of recommendation from their thesis mentor describing student's research activities.
3. One additional letter of recommendation, from someone who knows the applicant well.
4. Biosketch or short curriculum vitae for the student.
5. A PDF (combine into one file) of all publications to SOMgrad@OHSU.edu or mail to Graduate Studies, mail code L102GS

*Awards will be decided by the OHSU Awards Committee before 31 May 2012 and will run from 1 July 2012 to 30 June 2013
Scholarship may not be held concurrently with another scholarship.*

School of Medicine
Oregon Health & Science University
Office of Graduate Studies