This decade will be known as the decade of OCNE, or the Oregon Consortium for Nursing Education, which began as a partnership of OHSU and six community college partners who formed a shared baccalaureate nursing curriculum. The curriculum was implemented in 2006 and becomes a national model for other states.

Defining Moments in Nursing Education
Ashland, Oregon

In the ten years from 2000-09 there were:
• 394 Baccalaureate Degree in Nursing graduates and
• 26 Master’s Degree in Nursing graduates for a total of:
• 2038 nurses educated since 1968