Co-Directors for Simulation Appointed

The Office of the Provost is pleased to announce three Co-Directors to provide leadership for the Simulation program at OHSU.

Jeffrey Gold MD
Jeanne-Marie Guise MD, MPH
Erica Mitchell MD, FACS.

The directors will be responsible for leading a program of simulation for us for the next year across all schools, venues and the clinical enterprise. Read More

2012 Partners Investing in Nursing Annual Meeting

The OHSU School of Nursing hosted a site visit for educators from across the country who came to learn more about the 2008 mini-grant funded through the Oregon Center for Nursing and the NWHF. The focus was on the Integration of Cultural Competency into Simulation and the project lead was Jesika Gavilanes MA, Director for Educational Services and Simulation, OHSU School of Nursing.

Congratulations to Dr. Stephanie Sideras  Ashland OHSU School of Nursing team

Congratulations to Stephanie Sideras PhD and the Ashland School of Nursing team for their success in writing a successful simulation research proposal. What an honor for you and for OHSU SON and the OHSU simulation community to be recognized at the annual National League for Nursing summit with the Nancy Continued on page 2
Langston Research in Nursing Education Award on The Impact of Simulation Based Learning Activities on Nursing Students' Knowledge, Attitude and Behavior Related to Individuals with Schizophrenia: A Multi-Site Pilot Study Stephanie Sideras PhD, RN, Oregon Health & Science University.

Paula Gubrud-Howe EdD, RN, FAAN
Senior Associate Dean for Education & Statewide Programs

Image to the left: Statewide School of Nursing Simulation Team & guest speaker on action research, Hilary Bradbury-Huang 黄喜蕊, Ph.D. Professor, Division of Management

Thank you for your interest in Simulation at the Oregon Health & Science University. If you have any additional questions please contact simulation@ohsu.edu