Toe and Flow NW Conference

An OHSU and Oregon Podiatric Medical Association Partnership

Please join us for a full day of multidisciplinary continuing medical education for vascular surgeons, podiatrists, physicians, advanced practice providers, nurses, and allied health professionals who are interested in the latest national guidelines on the management of chronic disease, limb preservation, interventions, and wound care strategies.

Learning Objectives
At the conclusion of this activity, the learner will be better able to:
• Understand the role of the podiatrist and vascular team in the Toe and Flow multi-disciplinary approach
• Determine the timing of vascular and podiatric intervention
• Outline the role podiatrists play for the Toe and Flow Team
