

AND ORPRN CONVOCATION • APRIL 12–14, 2018

EMBASSY SUITES, PORTLAND

THURSDAY, APRIL 12 • ORPRN CONVOCATION CONNECTING, INVOLVEMENT, COMMUNITY HEALTH

12:30–12:45 pm	Welcome ORPRN Steering Committee
12:45–1:15 pm	ORPRN Travels on the 'Blue Highways' LJ Fagnan, Network Director
1:15–2:15 pm	Who We Are: ORPRN Study Findings and How We're Affecting Healthcare ORPRN Team
2:15–2:45 pm	Population Health and Primary Care Jennifer DeVoe, Chair of OHSU Family Medicine
2:45–3:00 pm	Break
3:00–4:30 pm	Breakout Sessions
	Difficult Conversations Part 1: Advance Care Planning (ACP) • Annette Totten, PhD Objectives: Introduce the Serious Illness Care Program (SICP) as a model to implement ACP; discuss who will benefit from ACP; describe measures to evaluate the impact of ACP.
	Difficult Conversations, Part 2: Substance Abuse & Mental Health • John Muench, MD Objectives: Discuss how to engage your patients in discussion about their drug use; learn about team-based care.
	Confronting Sexism in Medicine • Monica DeMasi, MD Objectives: Discuss the role of sexism in providing equity and respect in the health care work place.
	Social Determinants of Health (SDH): Housing, Food, Transportation • Bruce Goldberg, MD and Anne King, MBA Objectives: Learn about tools to screen for SDH in primary care practices; discuss linking SDH to community resources; describe workflow adaptation in practice to implement addressing the SDH.
	Have You "High-fived" Your Clinic Manager Today? • Panel of three clinic managers that have achieved Five-Star Patient-Centered Primary Care Home designation Objectives: Learn about teamwork, quality improvement, access, and patient-centered communication; describe techniques and tools used by clinic managers to meet the PCPCH standards.
4:30–5:00 pm	Reflections ORPRN Steering Committee
5:30–7:00 pm	Celebration and Toast for outgoing ORPRN Director LJ Fagnan in the Fireside Room

THURSDAY, APRIL 12 • OAFP ANNUAL SPRING FAMILY MEDICINE WEEKEND

6:00 pm	Kick Off Reception • Wine Cellar, Embassy Suites Hotel
---------	---