Oregon Clinical and Translational Research Institute (OCTRI) is excited to announce the return of OCTRI Research Forum. This monthly forum addresses topics related to clinical and translational research. Topics will be presented as discussions of issues and solutions to common obstacles in conducting clinical and translational research.

Part 1 - Which one is for you?

Thursday September 20 12-1 pm in Mac Hall 2201

Part 2 - Writing Tips

Thursday October 18 12-1 pm in Mac Hall 2201

Attendance at part 1 is not required to attend part 2

A list of additional dates, topics, and presenters can be found on the OCTRI Research Forum page.

Research Forum events will be streamed and recorded for the OCTRI Echo 360 channel. https://echo360.org/section/aefe4e1c-c635-4a3b-bf99-ce6439184f5f/public
